

The charms of Mali

Join the Dakar at the heart of Black Africa. You will discover the riches of Mali: the varied landscapes, the smiling faces, the traditional villages... without forgetting the race and its emotions. You too will share in the suspense at the finish of a Selective Section and participate in the daily life of the rally at the bivouac with the competitors.

Monday 15th January 2007

- ◆ Flight in the morning to Mali, lunch aboard the plane
- ◆ City sightseeing
- ◆ Dinner and night in a private bivouac

Wednesday 17th January 2007

- ◆ After breakfast, transfer to the start of the day's Selective Section
- ◆ Flight back to Paris late morning and lunch aboard the plane
- ◆ Arrival at Roissy in the evening

Tuesday 16th January 2007

- ◆ Breakfast at the bivouac
- ◆ Transfer in 4 wheel drives to the finish of the Selective Section
- ◆ Lunch
- ◆ Departure to the Euromilhões Lisboa Dakar 2007 bivouac
- ◆ Race Briefing and dinner with the competitors
- ◆ Night in the private bivouac

Minimum number of participants: 110

Practical information for French citizens:

A visa is compulsory, along with a valid passport. Visas are delivered by the diplomatic and consular authorities of Mali.

Practical information for all:

Yellow fever vaccinations are compulsory and treatment against malaria is recommended.

